Esk Valley Outings: Try our new resource

Find inspiration, share your experiences and win prizes at www.EskValleyOutings.co.uk

This month, we've launched a pioneering new web-based crowdsourcing initiative to encourage more people to enjoy the convenience of travelling by train along the Esk Valley Railway.

At EskValleyOutings.co.uk, you are invited to share your experiences, knowledge and memories of great times out which involved the Esk Valley Railway, aiming to inspire others to take these trains too. Everyone who contributes an entry to the website will be entered into a prize draw.

Each contribution, which can be simply added - with optional photographs - at EskValleyOutings.co.uk, has a dedicated page, which includes a description of the outing, useful resources and top tips. Users can also add comments to other people's contributions.

Anyone looking for inspiration about outings on the Esk Valley Railway can search the entries by station name, themes (such as food and drink, family outings, wildlife, etc), a map, or keywords chosen by the contributors.

The creation of this resource has been supported by the Department for Transport, Network Rail and the Association of Community Rail Partnerships (ACoRP).

New summer timetables

Get set for summer with the new timetables which commenced on 19th May

This timetable is available in two versions, the familiar format and the convenient pocket timetable. And, of course, the timetables giving all the arrival and departure times at a particular station can be viewed and printed off from the Esk Valley Railway website, along with journey duration times to Whitby and Middlesbrough, and sample ticket prices.
